SAVING BANK

BANK MAUA & Co.
—N. 103 calle Cangallo.—

The immense advantages of Account Current are now so generally felt, and appreciated in the two great countries of the Rivers Plate—Montevideo & Buenos Ayres—that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the Bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. in Montevideo has already proved to be the working class in that city, a safe & profitable depositary for their savings.

The sums deposited in that most important institution are daily increasing and already enach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been engaged in this city by numerous number of Clerks, artizans, workingmen & servants [of all classes & conditions] who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need, sickness or old age, instead of spending them in the immoral gambling, in lotteries and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá and Co. of this city following the example of their firm in Montevideo now offer the same facility in this city and will receive at the 1st October a Savings Bank at N. 103 calle Cangallo fr o 9 a m to 3 p. m on week days and on Sundays and holidays from 10 a.m. to 12 m for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned.

They trust these measures will generally be approved, of, as being without exception being Durable, easily planted, and tran sported to a more suitable.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1863.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE.

THE FRENCH MAILS.

The "Saintonge" arrived yesterday morning, bringing dates from London and Paris 25th and Lisbon 27th ult. The re is nothing of importance relative to the solution of European questions, and the Emperor Napoleon is absent from Paris, owing to the lull in affairs. The Polish war continues to occupy attention in France. A council of Ministers was held at the Tuileries, when an armed intervention was negatived. This is supposed to have displeased Napoleon, but the Imperial intentions are still a mystery. The Chambers are re-assemble in November. Some equivocal passtreats treating of political matters were suppressed, and the prefects forbidden from interfering in elections. On the 14th Aug. vigil of the Fete Napoleon a grand review of the National Guard of Paris was to take place; but it was prevented by Imperial order on her account of the great heat, but in reality from dread of a Polish manifestation.

A grand Catholic Congress was held at Malines, in Belgium, the principal speakers being Chevalier Braglie and M. Montalembert; the latter praised the liberty of speech and press, and blessings which made Belgium the freest country in Europe, and contrasted this unfavorably with the Government of France. The Congress was regarded as a great re actionary movement. The famous artist Eugene de La Croix has died.

Intelligence from England is of little interest. The press treats of the Polish question and generally condemns armed intervention. There are several attacks on France, especially Mexico, but the Times declares that Juarez' Government has lost all rights and sympathies in the eyes of the world. Queen Victoria set out on the 11th ult. for Germany and was to voyage by Stade 19th.

The new kingdom of Italy was progressing in the work of re-organization. A lengthened report of Neapolitan Brigandage" was presented to the Chambers in secret session, and partly published. It was rumored that Baron Rickasoli was about to be called to the Ministry, but this was soon doubted, also that Cardinal Antonelli had a second time resigned the Papal Government, and was succeeded by Cardinal Alicati. Cardinal Martini died at Rome.

All Europe looked with wonder on the German assembly of potentates in Frankfort and upon the Polish question was forgotten in the interest excited by this step of the Emperor of Austria, who entered Frankfort amid triumphal rejoicings, and conversed with the princes and burgo-masters in the palace of the ancient capital of the Holy Roman Empire. Austria was formerly regarded as ultra-conservative, and the present move has gained immense sympathy for Francis Joseph, who seems now to be the leader of liberal opinion. At the assembly, most of the German sovereigns were the Austrian uniform. On the 15th and 16th August the Emperor visited the new monastery visible, and the Saxon at Frankfort got up splendid public festivities. The only potentates who remained to attend were, the king of Prussia, the illegitimate princes of Hesse Darmstadt, and the king of Denmark; the last has a seat in the diet as Duke of Holstein-Holstein, about which there is to get into trouble, that is displeasing his German colleagues. All the rest either attended in person or sent their ministers apparently. Twelfth the following—The Emperor of Austria, kings of Bavaria, Saxony, Hanover and Holland; Grand-dukes of Baden, Hesse-Cassel, Hesse-Darmstadt, Mecklenburg, Weimar and Oldenburg; Dukes of Brunswick, Nassau, Anhalt; Princes Alexander, Coburg and Anhalt; Princes of Orange, Sondershausen, Reuss-Gretz, Hohenzollern, Waldeck, Schaumburg and Reuss Burgmasters of Hamburg, Bremen, Lubeck and Frankfort, Archduke William of Austria, Count Rechberg, Baron Schmerling, Prince Hohenlohe. It is obvious that the question of Hereditary prince of Anhalt-Dessau. The Emperor of Austria opened the Congress on the 16th, in a brilliant fashion, and the necessity of the Making the German Federal Constitution.

At the second conference it was resolved to submit the decision of all the potentates, requesting the attendance of King William of Prussia: the king of Saxony was charged to obtain his consent personally. On the 22nd, suspending its labors in the interim. The emperor of Austria went to Bohemia, to spend his birthday. Seven days elapsed before a reply arrived to Frankfort; among others Lord Clarendon, Earl Granville, duke of Cambridge, Prince Metternich and Count Appony. The Emperor of Joseph sent for some of his diplomatists, to confer about treating with their respective courts on the Polish question point by point.

The Austrian and Prussian ministers of F. Affairs, Counts Rechberg and Bismarck, published a circular regarding the Congress, and a reform of the Federal Constitution. Telegrams announce that he persists in holding out in obstructing the league. Saxony and Hanover support the project. The Federal Executive is to consist of seven members, of which one to be named by Austria, one by Prussia and Bavaria, and a Director by the Emperor of Austria.

Also a Chamber of Deputies, 300 in number, of whom 75 for Austria, 75 for Prussia and the rest for the other States.

After the Congress of Sovereigns was to be called a convention of Deputies, in Frankfort; but the project is still pending with the King of Hanover, who refuses to join it. Latest accounts date that Francis Joseph was returning from Dantzic, was sadness everywhere as farewell to the Emperor and Empress of Austria, Weimar, Baden and Coburg; have proposed an amendment, making the Congress of 43 and unanimity from the people. King William is ready to assent, but promises to consider the Austrian proposition. The prince regent announced that he and the Austrian and German sovereigns in the Chamber of 300 to be elected by popular suffrage.

It is said that Denmark has concluded an alliance offensive and defensive with Sweden and Norway.

The Polish rebellion continues to hold out manfully against Russian tyranny. Terrible retaliation takes place in the shape of executions, which Mackenzie Wallace says, will employ six regular provincial troops consist of butchery, banishment, confiscation, dungeons, starvation, sucking, &c. Nevertheless the patriots continue their daily successful encounters, and their courage was undaunted. It is known that the last notes of the Emperor Napoleon were regarded as a great re actionary movement. The famous artist Eugene de La Croix has died.

The official returns show that the horrors of the cattle plague are on the wane. During a week of August 1st, 2 persons were pursued, and two-thirds of the buildings, public and private, were then destroyed. The Government of Spain has issued a decree, that all cattle imported into the Queen has sent half a million. Two persons dues are to be abrogated in the Netherlands, and only as concerns all building materials.

From Madrid we learn that the King Consort is so seriously ill that he will not be able to resume the reins of Government in the public cares. Apprehensions are entertained that his illness will terminate fatally, and the people of Madrid are speculating upon the probable results of his death and the Queen, who, they assert, will not again enter the married state without getting anything happen to her husband."

Reports from Athens speak of the gradual diminution of anarchy in the provinces. Enormous contribution have been laid upon the wealthy traders of Patras, to indemnify the sufferers by the late conflagration. The King of the Greeks will go to Copenhagen, for Athens, before the end of the present month; for his wife is to be confined at the end of October. Prince Alfred, the Queen's son, is to visit London Parliament upon admittance to Greece.

An announcement of a very unusual nature has just been made, through the medium of the "Times," which says that an effort is to be made to put an end to the existing feud between Scotland and England. Which appears will be a task indeed.

The "Invalid Russe" of August 6th (old style) reports of Russian affairs. Of various sovereigns with the Governments of Kowno and Grodno, &c., according to the showing of the journal, occasioned heavy Russian losses. A fire has taken place in the city of Kiew, occasioning a loss of property of the value of 2,000,000 Roubles. The priests of Grodno have refused to join the Russian militia because they were wanted to gather in the harvest. On August 5 a militia order dated 14th August was read at the standing corps, which has been executed.

It is announced that the question of the recognition of the Confederate States of America was discussed at the Council of French Ministers held at St. Cloud on the 30th of August. The Ministers thought the time had arrived for such an act on the part of France, but the Council broke up without any determination being arrived at. It is generally thought in France that the recognition of the Southern States will take place immediately the Emperor returns to Paris.

The Government of Japan has paid the sum demanded by the English Government for the murder of Mr Richardson, but refused to consider the murderers.

The natives of Ceylon have risen in a body, with considerable loss, at Kandy, by a fierce native General Pilimatalawe. On the 6th British troops were sent to Kandy, and nine were killed.

UNITED STATES.

September 1st, 1863.

Our direct advices from Charleston are to Friday last, at which time Fort Sumter was one mass of ruins, and Fort Moultrie had been silenced by the Monitors. The batteries on Morris Island were also silenced. Rifled cannon of Sunday and Monday state that General Gilmore had demanded the surrender of the city, which was refused by Beauregard, and that on Sunday night, at twelve o'clock, our forces commenced shelling the city, firing fifteen 8-inch Parrott shells. The inhabitants were leaving the city in a continuous stream. Colonel Gaillard (rebel) has been killed, and Colonel Rhett and other officers wounded. Beauregard had protested against the shelling of the city, and affirms that no military purpose could be subserved by it. The wretched traitor, John B. Floyd, died of his miserable career at Rabbit Island, on the 2nd of August. He died of the effects of typhus fever and pleurisy in their worst forms.

Business was going on very quietly throughout the country.

The conscription in the South is reported to be unusually strong all over—every available man in the field, the weakest put in garrison, and even the boys and old men assigned to duty in the trenches.

Gold is selling in Richmond for fifteen dollars silver at fourteen, and Confederate Shinplasters were worth twelve dollars.

The latest for mail in New York was received at South American Mail Office, 68 Wall street, at 3 o'clock, P. M. common rumored, 15 to 23; Entre Rios, wheels, 40 to 41; mounted, 15 to 20; Cattle, 4 to 5; sheep, 30 to 40.

Hides are from 42 to 27 the dozen. Gold 157. Silver 124 and 125.

Foreign Exchange—Bills 238 1/2 to 237 1/2. Commercial 149 1/2 to 150 for Bankers.

The American Minister in Paris has entered a protest formally against pecuniary aid to the Confederate States.

The Paris Bank and wealthy bankers with their combined loans of advances, have come to the assistance of the South—Consols are the main security.

All the cotton in Montgomery and Augusta has been ordered to be destroyed, the order not to include the cotton in the Northwest.

It needs Lee and Meade to occupy the Shenandoah Valley, and twice ten thousand men would be sufficient to keep Lee's army still, had sent in his resignation, but it was not accepted.

Private advices from Texas say that upon a conscription being carried out in New York. A great meeting was to be held in consequence to resolve the best measures to adopt.

The "New York Herald" speaks of an alliance between the States and France, by the sending of a war vessel to France respecting Mexico.

The United States Minister to Japan had to fly to Jeddo to escape assassination. The foreign party had gained the upper hand, and it was expected every day a decree would be issued ordering every foreigner out of the country.

COMMERCIAL.

Latest advices from New York, notice a rise in dry hides to 27 1/2 cents, per pound, and the rate of gold at 199 to 145 per cent.

Telegraphic Despatch.

Paris 30th August.

The Grand Duke Constantine is recalled from Warsaw. The insurrection is gaining ground.

The King of Sp in is ill, and confined to bed in Granada.

MEXICO

The French Government has revoked some of General Forey's orders in Mexico, especially that of confiscation. A blockade has been ordered of the Gulf of Mexico, including Matamoras, Campeachy, and Tampico, until the Mexican guerrillas be entirely suppressed A circular of the United States Government, to its foreign agents, has been published, declaring that it will never consent to a Monarchy in Mexico, and endangering them not to act as representatives of Prussia James, in case Mexico be forcibly occupied. President Juarez is nominal ruler, but his army has passed over en masse to the French. It published a full manifesto from St. Louis Potosi, where he was organizing guerillas The Arch-duke Maximilian is not yet formally accepted the Imperial crown; he is gone to Brussels to consult his sage old father in-law. King Leopold and will then visit Napoleon at Biarritz.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS

The moreore, love, war, or politics, it has been invariably remarked that those who attend to their own affairs generally succeed, while meddlers and busy bodies make often a sad miscarriage, and get no thanks for officiously meddling in the affairs where their presence is not required. It stands to reason that every man knows his own business best, and no one likes to be dictated to by a foolish philanthropist, who ruins himself while endeavoring to attend to his neighbor's wants. Many people looked it up to as men of extraordinary back in life, yet they are not cute-ball so sharp as some other nations; and if we inquire the secret of their good fortune, we shall find it is, that comparative indifference for all around, and observance of the golden precept—"mind your own business."

Argentine politicians, on the other hand, are singularly touchy, their sore prompting them to all their neighbor when he seems to help, and their fingers toughing them when they don't. Not other nations would be supremely happy in the enjoyment of the blessings produced by their sage legislation. If, after the battle of Pavon, our Government had seriously set about internal improvement, great advances might have been made. But the blessings of a Liberal administration seem to run in a circle. Argentine could not enjoy them solidly, and exerting an eye of pity on the benighted habits of Paraguay and the victims of Oriental misrule, they resolved to confer the benevolence, to impart a civilising impulse, which would destroy the barbarous element still the erring in those favored countries.

An absurd relation, probably fomented by Argentine gold, was arranged between Argentine and Uruguay, showed more patently the merits and popularity of President Lopez and an invasion of Banda Oriental, connected with the Argentine and Uruguay Confederation, was served to inflict wide-spread ruin on that country, and cast a haunting shade on Buenos Ayres, in the face of the universe.

Dr. Elizalde lost much valuable time, and sustained himself to be held up to the world, in a view of a friend to Oriental wretchedness, with a slight mistake for whom he was no match, when he might have been better engaged in labouring to promote the interests of his own Republic. He resolutely, the General-Governor at Paris, during this the same event, was ignominiously turned out of the Paraguayan, to seek for protection, and to be received by the Emperor, and a real reputation for Buenos Ayres

Neither Dr. Elizalde nor Sec. Varela remembered to "mind their own business."

General Gelly Obes, who is of Ordinal descent, felt so lively an interest in the crusade of Flores, that he forgot all about the Olaeho and the Indians. Thus he was in frequent consultation with the friends of Oriental liberty, while daily hostilities arrived that the ravages were devastating Sts. Fe and Cordoba, and it was stated in Congress that the frontiers were wholly unprotected. Nay, was not the Minister of War looking through a telescope, at the Captain of the Port's, for the sighting of the Wild Silva at the moment of time that Penaloza was riding roughshod over Rioja and San Juan with a force of 1000 men. The result of consequence is, that we are plunged into a second civil war, because the gallant Minister has not "minded his own business."

We might cite the Sub-Secretary of the Interior and several others, who, instead of attending to their plaining, pipe-and-a-roods, prisons, banishing, and such other matters within the range of their intellect and office, have laboured to regenerate a country far ahead of this in industrial development, liberal taxation, and European ideas. But, alas! perhaps, after all, the cause of the war is dire, and jealousy the real cause; for B. Ayreans seem settled at the supremacy of the sister republic. Every Sunday a steamer leaves the Custom's destroy the fields of the Philippines, our statesmen leave "mind have" and let slip the dogs of war" on their fellow-citizens of Uruguay.

When two lawyers, they may discover their error; their allies of to-day will see to-morrow the iniquity of their conduct in the Peace invasion. Rumors at home, enmity abroad, and contempt from every Continental people, will be the result of the failure of the notorious designs, for Heaven cannot bless those who do not foster "peace on earth to men of good will;" and after a conflict of two years, Argentine Republic will admit the wisdom of that Buenos Ayrean policy which has raised her to a position of supremacy, and which has left the sister republics as big as themselves, who set too and cut right and left at her own behoof. Let Entre Rios and Corrientes, as also San Martin, went of spontaity; the only owners of the lots realise 238,500 dollars for 70 square of land. It is true that the big pays a great deal more paid for landed property in that neighbourhood.

The most gosh-ed plot in the Republic is Corrientes. A coin mpanying some y ars back established an Agency in the Calle 25 de Agosto No. 43 and 45 to, to transact business for goods. This company sent a wise man to the country. Notwithstanding the ruin, rumors of war, &c. &c. in the state of Corrientes, to us are happy to announce that a spirited loan system of sales are in operation by the Agency, and the Agent, Mr. A. Lewnham has established an Agency in the Calle 25 de Agosto No. 43 and 45 to, to transact business for goods. This company sent a wise man to the country. We understand that our enterprising friend Mr. A. Lewnham is about to visit the seat of capital and many years experience in both branches of business barrels contained an upper and lower to the Argentina Republic.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Saintonge has brought very important news, and some passengers, including those from the United States arrived at Rio Janeyro, per Golden Gate, ss.

Mr. Yancey, the Confederate Envoy to Europe, is dead, aged 48. Some persons here mistake him for our former American resident Minister, who, we believe, was a relation of his.

Respecting the marble-dust sugar, Retail Grocery Tea Wine and Spirit, which is at present being the only subject of the day with the Montevidean, we must refer our readers to the leader of our friends in the Uruguay Times.

We must remain in our order, saying least Mr. A. Lewnham is about to visit the seat of capital and many years experience in both branches of business Republic.

THE WESTERN RAILWAY

The earthwork of this road are now completed, and a bequest to the Mr. Wheelwright, the Central Argentine Railway," concession and official from Morena; but, we are informed, documents published in English, in that the works progress slowly. London.

The Uruguay mails bring no news, nor is there anything positive about Flores, but the "Tribuna" reports he has taken Cerro Largo and Artigas.

Deputy Orono proposes to fix the National land forces at a standing army of 6,000 men. Unfortunately he has chosen a bad season for the production, for the Chacho even at present is not many for us. We are, moreover, in the dark as to what standing forces we may count on, for a large number has the trick of running away.

The Government of Buenos Ayres, we are assured, intends to reduce the price of land beyond the Salado 10 selling in future at $180000 per league. A sum of 11 millions more, it is said, has been lodged by intending purchasers, of which sum we know from the most part.

The festivals at the Mercado Nuevo were well attended. A Te Deum was sung for the happy extinction of the recent fire at the altar. We have heard numerous complaints of the misconduct of some fashionable young natives, at the door of the temple, who mistook the House of God for a place of public amusement.

Some foreign residents are beginning to be sensitive to the persecutions of Societies. A German gentleman applied to us last week for cotton seed and instructions, as he was about to experiment on land near Salto.

Letters have been received in town from the surveying party of the interior railway from Concordia to Restauracion. They were in excellent health and spirits, having arrived at the frontier, and hoped to terminate their labours by the middle of October.

It is gratifying to learn that the accounts of loss of stock in Chascomus have been much exaggerated. So far from a diminution in the capital on the stock, many farmers have had a moderate increase, none but the old ewes dying.

Our Rosario colleague publishes the packet-review in English, and says that the "Standard" summary is a much more truthful exposition of the state of affairs in Rosario than those of the native Buenos Ayreas papers.

Amongst the passengers per Saintonge is Mr. Bamberger, who lately left this city with the object of bringing out emigrants from Germany. We hear he has been very successful in his efforts

Mr. Bonorino has published in the Tribuna a letter, respecting the murderdust sugar, and it states that he was perfectly innocent of the matter, and that the Chief of Police has taken up the matter. We hope that the guilty parties will be punished.

An Irishman was frightfully cut by two ruffian policemen in Moreno the other day. Our poor countryman had been invigled into a French coffee-house where some French blackguards succeeded in making him intoxicated, and then when they found that he had no money to pay, got a couple of these police, fellows whose calves are nearly as big as themselves, who set too and cut right and left at her poor Irishman. The case was heard by Bilbao yesterday, and the police were fined, and the company was warning the arrival of the next packet for Europe. We hope that Corrientes to to be right with us, Governor Lagrana is decidedly the most popular man in the Republic. Every man and woman in the state is proud of the resources of our province, he tries. We want no man in it but in the country.

Notwithstanding the rain, rumors of war, &c. &c. in the state of Corrientes, to us are happy to announce that a spirited loan system of sales are in operation by the Agency, and the Agent, Mr. A. Lewnham has established an Agency in the Calle 25 de Agosto No. 43 and 45 to, to transact business for goods. This company sent a wise man to the country. We understand that our enterprising friend Mr. A. Lewnham is about to visit the seat of capital and many years experience in both branches of business Republic.

THE WESTERN RAILWAY

The earthwo ks of this road are now completed, and a bequest to the Mr. Wheelwright, the Central Argentine Railway," concession and official from Morena; but, we are informed, documents published in English, in that the works progress slowly.

The business of this road has increased wonderfully during the last twelve months, and is increasing daily Under proper management, the road ought to pay for itself in a few years. If possible, the Government ought to publish comparative statements every month, and then the public could judge for themselves of the extent of the traffic.

The stations are on the face of the globe, a road paying so well, and yet affording such slender accommodations, cannot be found. At the Floresta, Caballito, and Flores, there are ten or twelve yards of a landing, while, of course, it utterly inadequate for the trains, which are from three to five carriages long. The passengers are of the wrong side of the line, in order the better to inconvenience the passengers. The tickets are issued at one end of the station, primeval character: little slips of coloured paper, stamped with a sun unintelligible hieroglyphic. The officials generally exhibit the same want of communicative character, poking their heads into the window every five minutes, and then disappearing again with moroseness, and a sullenness unknown to anyone, and ought to be sent about their business.

HORRIBLE MURDER.

A most shocking murder was perpetrated recently in Corrientes. The unfortunate victim was a woman who was suicided. The murderer is a brickmaker, and is described as a man of a most ill character, but one born at times illiterate with insanity. He was arrested in the very act, but not in time to save the life of the unfortunate woman.

THE PAMPERO.

On Sunday night at about ten o'clock we were visited with a strong pampero which lasted for several hours, and was followed with rain. In some parts it blew a perfect hurricane, causing serious damage. In the neighbourhood of Morena a house was blown down, and not even the principal posts left standing. We have not heard whether it caused any damage in our shipping or not, but in many parts of the camp it blew down corrals, trees, &c.

GOVERNMENT LANDS.

SIR—Seeing in your impression of the 27th August a notification to the effect then in all probability a law will be passed granting a square league of camp to any person who will settle upon the border;

I am very anxious, sir, to gain further information about this project; I therefore have taken the liberty of addressing you upon the subject, and should be very glad if you would favour me with the information I seek.

Firstly, as to the locality and quality of the land, the means of reaching it with baggage, and the probable extent of population to be met with from the Indians.

Secondly, as to the possibility of fulfilling that part of the contract which will compel the settler to build an entire house; are materials within reach?

Thirdly, at what distance will the settler be able to buy stock, and the charges of selling his produce, and on the Government afford any protection at all?

I fear, sir my request is rather a troublesome one, but if you will pardon the liberty, and grant a reply, I shall be extremely grateful.

Should the prospect appear at all encouraging I think I can get several young men to join in the enterprise.—I am, thy your obedient servant,

ANGLO-SAXONIANO.

[We beg to refer the above, and such like correspondence, to Mr. J. G Kenrick, 110 Calle Perque, agent to these matters.—ED. STANDARD.]

M. PAUL DUTEIL.

Yesterday we had the pleasure of a visit from this distinguished violinist, who arrived here from Montevideo on Sunday. He was well received in the Oriental capital, and we assure that he will cause a like favour here, having established in Europe and America his title to the sumbriquet of "el Paganini en violon". We will comment in this part in our, in a few days at either of our theatres.

ARRIVAL OF SICILIA.

We are happy to say that the 81 lbs arrived in Rio Janeiro on the 24th of the Sabintego. The captain of the Sabintego states that in his voyage from Montevideo to Rio he met the Sicilia her down with.

Passengers per Sabintego.

Mr. and Mrs. Prayna and family, Mr. Bartendie, Mr. Cavalle, Mr. and Mrs. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. Towers, Mr. Dal. Silvestre Lourido, Villa Mercedes.

DE HOCES AND DE BURINET.

Foster's commission has met with a rather favorable appreciation. We hope if the Dr. ever wrote on a more popular subject. Every paper in Cordoba was brought up, and had we printed 300 extra copies we do not think we should have rendered up less, so great has been the demand.

STATE OF THE INTERIOR.

The Province of Santa Fe of which Rosario is the commercial capital, is in the enjoyment of the most perfect peace, with an honest and straightforward administration that has increased the revenues of the province, in two years, from 80,000 to 160,000 dollars.

The triumph of Buenos Ayres, thus ought to have brought peace and prosperity to the whole nation, has from the quality of its public men, and the passions of party, been prejudiced to the well being of the provinces; but we believe that this disadvantage will be but momentary.

The National Government seems to be animated by the best disposition, as is proved by the determination to conclude the Railway to Cordoba, which will do more for the opening up of the country, and to attract immigration than any circumstance that has occurred up to the present time.

While the provinces of the Littoral have enjoyed the advantages of peace, and have only been hostilized by the cruelty and jealousy of the Capital, evinced in the non-payment of the subsidy due by Government, and the refusal to adequate protection to the commerce of the country, the provinces of the Interior have suffered not only anarchy still, from the existence of elements inimical to the prosperity of the country.

Immigration on a large scale is flowing its way to the shores of Santa Fe. The house of Werner and Co. of London, has concluded a very advantageous contract with the Government of that province, for the immigration of ten thousand families, who are to be located on the river Salado and the Parana, in a region of magnificent lands and beautiful climate. The colony of immigrants already established near the town of Santa Fe, is in a very flourishing condition, and produced last year 80 thousand bushels of wheat, which has reached on an average, seven and thirpence stralling the bushel.

The provinces of Cordoba, Santiago, Tucuman, Salta, Jujuy, on one side of the river, (including of course Santa Fe,) and Entre Rios and Corrientes on the other side, are quiet and progressing.

The province of Catamarca, one of the richest in the interior, in agriculture, mines and population, has sent to San Luis, are the pray, the one to that government, the others to the visits of the commissioners to and Santa Juan, both very rich provinces, are only beginning to recover from the effects of the civil conflicts emanating from the province of Rioja.

Notwithstanding however, the still disturbed state of these provinces, and the recent revolution in Cordova, wholly although confined as regards its effects on the peace of the country, had the momentary effect of paralyzing the trade of the interior, notwithstanding, we may say, the evidently commercial movement between Rosario and the provinces is by no means discouraging. —Herald.

MISCELLANY.

COLONEL LAPINSKI'S EXPEDITION.—The curious which under the command of Colonel Lapinski, sailed from London 16th strong, a short time ago for Mexico it in the Baltic, has met with a series of reverses. Twenty-four members of the the expedition were seized in an attempt to land at Mitau. The whole of their papers and war stores were confiscated, and the whole remainder of the expedition were brought under arrest three weeks ago in a Swedish steam vessel, and landed at Westwick. They have since remained there, in the hope of being soon enabled to make another effort to reach Poland, but, from all accounts, the chances are now but few indeed, and the last party who attempted yesterday left Westwick for London in a state of destitution. They had disposed of their uniform and all the rest adopted a civil dress before starting.

MAKING A HOUSE.—In Wetton day some months ago, the Commune, was on considerable difficulty to constructing "a house," and it was built-past 12 before the requisite 40 members could be got together. Then they had to wait to take the chair. At about 20 minutes past 12 Sir Randall Palmer, the Solicitor General, suddenly rose and made known to the house, through whom the Serg.-at-at-Arms allowed him to pass, in virtue of the usual order, which provides that no one shall be in the House who is not a member unless he have "business" is made. No sooner had the learned gentleman passed through the strict door than he was set upon by one of the officials outside, who shortly took him back to the Ministerial passage, and, the citizen of those who were assembled in the House, he was received by the Sergeant

Caution
COLLARD AND COLLARD'S
PIANOFORTES.

Having been introduced to Messrs. Collard and Collard, manufacturers of Piano Fortes to London, with a view to their appointment as sole agents in this country for the sale of their instruments, they have been duly authorized to give notice to the public that they have not appointed any agent for the sale of their instruments, and that they only consider as genuine such instruments as are manufactured at their manufactory, and bearing their name and address. Messrs. Collard and Collard have also appointed Messrs. Wessell, Nickel and Gross, of No. 21 Calle Piedad, as their only agents in this city, and they have no other sole Agents, who have not in their possession a stock of their instruments, and who are not in a position to supply any purchaser at the same prices as charged in the manufactory, and with the same facilities of obtaining it from control for sale or repair.
